Review: I used this book for an apple themed curriculum based speech-language unit for preschoolers. The story is set on a farm and the various common farm animals take an apple off the tree one by one counting from ten to zero. The text follows a predictable rhythm and rhyme sequence that the children enjoyed filling-in and chiming along. Each animal...

Description: Ten red apples hanging on a tree. Yippee, fiddle-dee-fee! But they are not there for long. Horse, cow, donkey, pig, hen, and the other farm animals each eat one. Save one for me, calls the farmer. But what about the farmers wife? Count on Pat Hutchins to solve the problem happily. And count the red apples before they are all gone!...
